PRE-MEDIA

Pre-Press is where your digital visions are refined for electronic delivery, or transformed into a physical product. To do this, CRW employs a multi-layered security model, advanced software and computer hardware with integrated redundancy, which allows us to act as a “cloud provider” for our clients and efficiently produce your work.

WORK STATIONS & GRAPHICS SOFTWARE

CRW Graphics maintains networked Macintosh and Windows computers for processing client files, custom composition, and dimensional intervention. Our sophisticated team of electronic specialists is the finest in the industry. CRW has a streamlined PDF workflow. Files are processed using a combination of Heidelberg Prinect PrintReady full PDF workflow with two RIPs and Xerox Freeflow & Fiery workflow management software.

PRINTING

CRW Graphics hosts the latest and greatest in digital and offset press technology. Presses are fingerprinted and calibrated to accurately and consistently produce your most critical work via G7 Certified Standards. Our conventional presses print up to 6 Colors, with both UV Printing & Conventional Vegetable Based Inks and with Aqueous Coating. Our digital presses are award winning devices, with technology and quality that is unmatched in the marketplace.

FINISHING

At CRW Graphics we have a broad range of in-house capabilities. We can provide the finishing that your most creative work requires. We can stretch wide by utilizing our complete list of in-house resources. From a simple trim & pack project to a large-scale dimensional package and fulfillment program. We welcome the opportunity to support any request.

MAILING SERVICES

CRW Graphics is supported by an in-house, full-service, Mail Shop. We get your printed pieces into the hands of your target audience at the most economical postal rates. Starting with a postal preflight done by a team of Certified Postal Designers, we check every job for conformance to postal specifications. We can also procure and sort your mailing lists. Finally, we process conventional direct mail, Every Door Direct Mail, or bulk package shipments to get your messages and packages delivered on time, every time.

DELIVERY

CRW Graphics’ dependable, full-service Mail Shop gets your printed pieces into the hands of your target audience at the most economical postal rates.
